

ISSO as a Service (ISSOaaS) Model Offering

Purpose

Finding qualified Security experts can be lengthy, costly, and exhausting. In a growing technological world, where business is driven by data and information, supporting your cyber security needs is imperative meeting your security mission. ASSYST offers ISSOaaS as an effective and convenient alternative to ensure operational security posture by taking proactive security measures and mitigating risk strategies in compliance with security policies, standards, and procedures. Our ISSOaaS seeks to deliver embedded cyber security specialists to your business quickly needs to assess, evaluate systems, facilitate effective security practices, and maintain your security controls for performance improvement.

Service Offered:

- Security Specialists: Subject Matter Experts, Cyber Security Analysts
- Consultation Services: vulnerability and risk assessment analysis to support Assessment & Authorization (A&A).
- Cost Efficiency: Lower cost in recruitment, on-demand to meet your security objectives
- Collaboration: Embed ISSO with the system owners of the organization to enhance security and privacy
- Authorization to Operate: Employing Risk Management Framework (RMF) in accordance with Risk Mitigation Strategies based on NIST SP 800 Frameworks
- Cloud Proficiency: Guidance to maintain Secure ATO Compliant FedRAMP Systems Cloud Operations
- Reporting: Ensure compliance with control family requirements on system website usage, system measurement and customization technologies, and third-party systems and application